UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON AT SEATTLE

8 DEBRA S. O'NEAL,
9 Plaintiff,

10 v.
11 STATE FARM FIRE AND CASUALTY
COMPANY,
Defendant.

No. 2:23-cv-00232-KKE

DECLARATION OF NOAH DAVIS IN SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFF DEBRA
O'NEAL'S MOTION FOR ATTORNEY
FEES AND COSTS

13 I, NOAH CHRISTIAN DAVIS, declare as follows:

- 14 1. I am an attorney licensed to practice law in the State of Washington and am the 15 Managing Member of In Pacta PLLC located at 33530 1st Way S Suite 102, Federal Way,
16 WA 98003. I have been practicing law since 2001.
17 2. Besides the State Courts of Washington, I am admitted to the U.S. Supreme Court, the 9th
18 Circuit Court of Appeals, U.S. Tax Court and the W.D. of Washington.

19 I. EXPERT QUALIFICATIONS

- 20 3. Prior to my admittance to the Washington bar, I graduated the University of Arkansas
21 School of Law with honors in 1998 with honors, clerked at the Arkansas Court of 22 Appeals, and then completed a Masters of Law (in person) at Melbourne University in

1 Melbourne, Australia (where I also worked towards a second Masters at Monash
 2 University) –in international commercial law and arbitration.

- 3 4. After working as a securities compliance manager in Melbourne, I returned to the US in 4 2001 to begin my Washington State practice as a solo practitioner, before working as a
 5 partner in two firms (Davis McCormick and Compatore Davis) and then founding IN
 6 PACTA PLLC.
 7 5. While initially a solo practice, IN PACTA PLLC grew to as many as seven lawyers over
 8 its first 12 years in operation, before I reversed course and gradually downsized back to
 9 a solo practice (where am I today). My CV is attached as Exhibit A to this declaration.
 10 6. An active member of the WSBA (including serving on more than a dozen boards and as 11 a Hearing Officer for the Washington State Bar Association), my legal practice has 12 centered on litigation (including, most often: insurance coverage disputes (including bad
 13 faith and IFCA), personal injury, employment and business disputes in both state and 14 federal court.
 15 7. My practice has also varied to include advising a publicly traded mutual fund, a sports
 16 star and successfully defending a matter before the FAA.
 17 8. As lead counsel at trial, I have successfully tried at least 9 cases, including jury trials in 18 state and federal court.
 19 9. I have also acted as appellate counsel, and have successfully argued two cases to reversal
 20 – one in the Washington Supreme Court (Oltman v. Holland America, 163, Wn.2d 236 21 (2008); a spouse’s loss of consortium claim was not precluded by contract), and one in 22 the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals (Oltman v. Holland America, 538 F.3d 1271 (2008); 23 equitable tolling of the statute of limitations), while also successfully defending cases on

1 appeal (in the Washington State Courts). And I am currently prosecuting an appeal in an
 2 insurance coverage dispute in the Ninth Circuit.

3 10. In addition, I have acted as the sole arbiter in approximately 12 cases that have reached a
 4 final decision, including one case involving a fee dispute between the client and
 5 attorney.

6 11. Over my some twenty-three years of practice, I have submitted declarations in support
 7 of my hourly rate being accepted by a court, and have defending against requests by
 8 opposing counsel for an hourly rate to be accepted. And, I have also received fee
 9 declarations from counsel in the cases I have arbitrated (in which I had to find an hourly
 10 rate to be reasonable).

11 12. From those experiences, including the context of my two decades of work as an attorney
 12 in Washinton, I am familiar with the spectrum of reasonable hourly rates in Washington
 13 from State Court to Federal, and from hourly to contingency.

14 13. Although, I have never testified as an expert at trial, I believe I am qualified to opine on 15 the reasonableness of hurly rates charged in Washington, in this case.

16 II. ASSIGNMENT AND WORK PERFORMED

17 14. And, to that end, I have been retained by Dubs Herschlip of Dunlap Bennett & Ludwig
 18 (“DBL”) to provide an opinion on the reasonableness of the hourly rates charged by
 19 DBL attorneys Dubs Herschlip, Rafael Bultz, Alexander Rowan, Tracy Pearson, Austin
 20 Hatcher, and Sara Kahan as well as his paralegals William Adan and Camdyn Joiner.

21 15. I performed several tasks in order to develop my opinion.

22 a. First, I communicated with Dubs Herschlip regarding the case (to familiarize 23 myself with the isssues);

- b. 2nd, I reviewed Dubs Herschlip's Declaration in Support of Attorney Fees
- c. I also reviewed recent fee requests among Plaintiff's lawyers via the Eagle listserv.

III. OPINIONS

16. My understanding is that Plaintiff seeks an award of attorney's fees based on Mr. Herschlip's hourly rate of $550 (with a 2023 hourly rate of $500 and 2021/2022 hourly rate of $350); Mr. Bultz's hourly rate of $395 (with a 2023 hourly rate of $295); Mr. Rowan's hourly rate of $395 (with a 2023 hourly rate of $295); Ms. Pearson's hourly rate of $495; Mr. Hatcher's hourly rate of $250; and Ms. Kahan's hourly rate of $295. The overall average of DBL's hourly attorney fees were $425.55.

17. Although my opinion on what the hourly rate of each attorney or paralegal will vary depending on both the experience and substantive involvement, I state on a more probable than not basis that for all of the attorneys and legal staff, that DBL's hourly rates are well within the realm of reasonableness for the Seattle market for legal representation of the type and quality provided.

18. Mr. Herschlip's 24 years' experience as an attorney, and his past trial experience warrants a $500/hr rate, especially as applied to work in federal court (which I find to be a more demanding and exacting practice than in state court). For comparison, while I have similar experience to Mr. Herschlip, I find myself to below market and am now publishing a very similar rate ($475/hr) for my Federal Court matters though that amount increases to $575/hr for contingency cases – whereas my State Court rate is now published at $375/hr).

19. As for the other attorneys, Mr. Bultz (four years of legal experience at a law firm prior

1 to law school including non-lawyer work), Mr. Rowan (three years of legal experience
 2 as a judicial intern and legal services volunteer), a rate up to $400/hr is very reasonable,
 3 taking into account the Seattle-metro market, as well as the experience of each of these
 4 individuals.

5 20. But for Ms. Pearson, in light of her over fifteen years of experience, including as a
 6 prosecuting attorney, which reflects more trial experience than most civil litigators have
 7 (including myself), a rate up to $500 is well warranted and reasonable.

8 21. As for litigation staff, such as paralegals, I find a rate up to $200/hr to be reasonable
 9 with a rate of $125/hr being undermarket.

10
 11 I state the foregoing opinions on a more probable than not basis and I declare under
 12 penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington that the foregoing is true
 13 and correct.

14 Signed at Tacoma, Washington, this 17th day of November 2024
